

Iceni People Development Bulletin

Welcome to Issue 2 of the Iceni Academy People Development bulletin! Thank you for your feedback and thoughts on Issue 1. Following your feedback, this bulletin includes key dates and webinar dates for this month. As ever, you can sign up to any webinars that interest you via BlueSky. Further descriptions of these webinars is available in the brochure, accessible via the People Development tile on the intranet. If you have any feedback, ideas for what you would like to see or if you would like to contribute to the bulletin, please let me know!

Amy

Who to follow on Twitter

@EnserMark: Head of Geography and research lead, Mark is the author/co-author of 'The CPD Curriculum', 'Generative Learning in Action' and 'Teach Like Nobody's Watching', amongst other titles.

@PepsMccrea: For ultra-concise research summaries from an expert on cognition and teacher education and expertise, look no further than Peps! Author of 'Motivated Teaching' and 'Memorable Teaching'

@teacherhead: Tom Sherrington's Twitter is as much of a treasure trove as his blog and books, which include 'Rosenshine's Principles in Action' and 'Walkthrus'.

CPD Library Recommendation

'A Little Guide for Teachers:
Diversity in Schools',
Bennie Kara

In this book, Kara aims to provide starting points for teachers and leaders in creating a curriculum, either across disciplines or within subjects, that is as deep and diverse as their students.

September's Blog in Focus

Relationships at school: Teacher-student

In this blog, Tom Sherrington focuses on how we can create strong relationships between staff and students – particularly important as we start a new academic year, welcome new students and teach new classes.
