

Iceni People Development Bulletin

Cold Calling Special!

Here we are already at Issue 4 of the Iceni People Development Bulletin! Thank you for your kind feedback on Issue 3. Once again, this edition focuses on the next Iceni Principle of Instruction: cold calling. We would love to feature a blog (or blogs!) in Issue 5 from colleagues who would like to explore scaffolding or cold calling in their own practice, offering some tips to others about your experience of embedding these mechanisms in your classroom. Please speak to Amy if you would like to contribute, or if you have any questions.
